AIBenAza are a Devon based trio with a difference.

Al, Ben and Aza effortlessly move between acoustic based anthems and balls-out rock. They always make an impression, whether it be for their on-stage energy, instrument swaps, beat-boxing or crowd friendly songwriting. With a fresh new release on the horizon (through LMC Records), things have never looked brighter for the friendly trio.

"Sit Back" is an anthem of our times. It says sod the recession, lets have a laugh!

"World Falls Down" sees it from the other side, without money how can you chase your dreams and do the things you love...

"Honey" shows off the more inward looking AIBenAza. A live favourite, it also showcases their fantastic 3-way vocal harmonies.

"Three great talents, brilliant material of their own, truly unique covers, and importantly loadsa fun!"
